President's Ponderings

Calendar

February is over! I could not be happier about that!

It's been said we put time and money into the things we value. That rings true for what we love in our sewing and applies to our guild events and activities. You continue to demonstrate a commitment to our guild through sewing/quilting and participation in meetings and workshops.

Now that a few small events are being scheduled, I am excited to report we have all the volunteers needed to support both the March Boerne Library and the Kuhlmann King Museum quilt displays! This includes the prework needed to make those two events happen. We have a good start on the April Shop-Hop volunteers to sell raffle tickets as well. As other dates get closer, I'll send out another email with any volunteer openings left and focus on trying to cover the three Saturdays in April first. Thanks to ALL who volunteered by showing you value the CCQG Guild!

We have plans for our Quilt Conference coming up the last week in April. Planning happens two years in advance to secure great speakers for lectures and workshops. Those 3 days (April 28-30; Wednesday-Friday) are 100% on us to plan, execute and deliver. Regardless of whether Quiltfest goes forward or not, our quilt conference can happen. I realize COVID vaccines are still difficult to schedule, but expectations are it will get easier with each passing week. Our guild relies on booth and raffle ticket sales during Quiltfest to help offset some our cost for the conference. That means there is a possible financial risk to the guild if Quiltfest were to be cancelled. But that would not be the first time that has happened either. In prior years, we were able to secure other opportunities for quilt booth sales.

Your board has continued talking about the Quilt Conference since our meeting this past week. It's likely we will send a survey out to all members to get your input, reactions and capture any concerns. Please watch for that email and respond promptly.

Stay healthy and keep moving forward!

Quilt 2 End ALZ Workshop

We had a dozen members participate in the group Sew-in and Ashli Montgomery's workshop on February 13. We sold 16 ALZ kits with 3 members working multiple kits.

With so many families affected by Alzheimer's disease, it's a way for us to pay it forward to help find a cure. Thank you for your generosity and dedication.

Zoom enabled us to socially gather; and share experiences and information sources. We learned that there are U-Tube episodes devoted to quilt history. Check out "6 Quilts With 6 Know-It-Alls" on YOU-Tube: <https://youtu.be/r2w-7lqw76I>

March Zoom Program

We welcome Theresa Dureya Wong back to Cibolo Creek Quilters Guild for our March program. Her lecture is - Native American Quilts, 1880-1950

Interviewed by Elizabeth Townsend Gard

Date December 2017 and July 2019

Teresa Dureya Wong is a lifelong writer and communicator. She began her career as a journalist, and later published a fine art magazine. For two decades, she worked in public affairs and eventually became Vice President of Communications for a large corporation. She currently writes, quilts and blogs about quilts. Teresa holds a Masters of Liberal Studies degree from Rice University and was recently named the 'Faith P. and Charles L. Bybee Foundation Scholar' by the Bybee Foundation and the Texas Quilt Museum.

Teresa doesn't have a new book for purchase this year, but is working on a new/future book release next year re: her work with the "Social Justice Sewing Academy"—check out the link below.

COVID Recoveries:

Elaine & Mimi's brother Jason Chin has recovered from COVID-19 after his 5 day hospital stay

Karen Walsemann's daughter, Karla made a complete recovery from COVID-19 and has moved back to her apartment at University of Texas.

Congratulations to Stacey's daughter, Lindsey Kurowski, whose series "Inn the Works" is now available on Magnolia Network, streaming on the DiscoveryPlus app. Stacey is in episodes #2 through #6 along with her children, Kelsey, Matt, and step-son, Adam.

Sending prayers and Sympathy: Kathleen Swafford's mom passed away on Feb 22 at the age of 90. She suffered from Alzheimer's the last years of her life.

As a quilters' community, we want to share your life joys and the concerns of your heart. If you would like to share your news with us, please email or contact a board member, so we may all celebrate happiness with you and pray for things that weigh on your heart.

Newsletter Submissions

If you would like to have something placed in the April newsletter, please email it to Elaine Stoecker no later than March 31st. Our Newsletter is published the last weekend of each month for the following month.
