President's Ponderings

Calendar

First the GOOD news...We can meet again face-to-face at the Boerne library starting in June! We have ALL missed seeing friends. The results of our latest member survey indicated many of you were ready for some in-person meetings and workshops. I am excited we can get back together again. While ZOOM is not our first choice, it did provide us a way to communicate without the risk of spreading COVID.

We are planning to have a May Guild Meeting and moved our scheduled September lecture by Kathy Groves to May 13. Kathy's workshop will be in-person the following month on Friday, June 11 and will finish with a 3-hour ZOOM on Saturday, June 26. This is a hybrid approach to a workshop with both in-person and ZOOM instructions. Kathy's demonstration components are recorded and available to each workshop participant for replay. Kathy offered to bring her quilts from the May trunk show to the June workshop so participants will have a chance for a closer look!

We confirmed Quiltfest will be back this year on Saturday, May 1 at the AgriCultural Museum and Arts Center! Save the date as we will need all the help we can get. More details coming soon.

If you have friends who were reluctant to join (or rejoin) this year, please reach out and let them know we are headed back to in-person meetings in a few months.

Stay healthy and safe,
Bonnie Walshe

Quilt Conference Survey Results

You received an online survey to help us gauge the possible level of member participation for our conference speakers this year. The results of that survey were as follows:

- 21 members responded (the Board thanks you for taking the time to reply!).
- Susan Cleveland: 12 members were “definitely” or “likely” to attend the in-person workshop and 15 replied the same for the in-person lecture.
- Becky Goldsmith: 5 members were “definitely” or “likely” to attend the zoom workshop and 13 replied the same for the zoom lecture.

We have rebooked both speakers for 2023 since they both were already booked for 2022.

Kuhlmann King Museum Event in March

While the weather was not cooperating during our two Saturdays in March at the Museum, we added $155 to our Raffle Quilt sales, got two new members to join the guild and made some new friends! I personally did not anticipate how energized and excited I would feel after getting the chance for in-person conversation with other guild members. Thanks to the members who allowed us to display your quilts. And to the volunteers selling raffle tickets and doing demonstrations; YOU are ALL amazing!

May Zoom Program

Kathy Groves is the founder of Bobkatquilts and a Quiltworx certified instructor. She has been an educator for more than 30 years a quilter for more than 20 years.

Ms. Groves will delight us with her trunk show and lecture “How to Eat an Elephant” /Translation: Taking the mystery and fear out of tackling a Judy Niemeyer quilt. Foundation paper piecing can be a challenge, but Ms Groves’ patience and sense of humor brings delight to the final finished product.

On Friday, June 11, Ms. Groves will conduct a full day in-person workshop: “Poinsettia Table Topper” and will finish with a 3 hour ZOOM on June 26. Workshop will be held at PHPL. Cost, and materials will be available, soon.

Sunshine & Shadows

CCQG meetings resume at PHPL on June 10
451 N Main, Boerne

Please keep Alice Hobbs' family in your prayers. Her husband, Bill is recovering from cancer surgery and chemotherapy.

Please keep Jennifer Goodall's family in your prayers. Her sister, Elizabeth is on hospice care and her family is looking for a nursing home for sister Marjorie who has lymphoedema.

Laurie Valentino's husband is back to work. He is being transferred to Vail, CO due to the COVID situation.

Sadly, Laurie's family will move in the Spring. She will miss her sweet mama in Boerne and all her friends.

As a quilters' community, we want to share your life joys and the concerns of your heart. If you would like to share your news with us, please email or contact a board member, so we may all celebrate happiness with you and pray for things that weigh on your heart.

Newsletter Submissions

If you would like to have something placed in the May newsletter, please email it to Elaine Stoecker no later than April 30th. Our Newsletter is published the last weekend of each month for the following month.
