President's Ponderings

Calendar

Members,

It feels good to be able to start getting together in small groups with guild members again. Those few opportunities recently made me realize how much I missed seeing everyone. Preparation for Quiltfest expanded that number of member interactions. After two years of being rained out and another year lost to COVID lockdowns, things were starting to pick up again. An outdoor event like Quiltfest was just what I needed.

Then came the rain that stopped us yet again! Already being in a Stage 2 drought in April had raised concerns for the summer. Rain forcing the cancelation of Quiltfest causes our guild concern as we lost a traditionally good opportunity for fund raising. Let me assure you we don't need to panic just yet.

Thanks to Tish at Sew It Fabulous, our guild was able to sell raffle tickets during the Bluebonnet Shop Hop. We made over $100 in ticket sales each of the 6 days we were there! Tish had us setup in the classroom and all Shop Hoppers had to come to the classroom to get their passports stamped and pickup their free fat quarter. While everyone did not buy a raffle ticket, many did. The same goes for the Boerne City Wide Garage Sale. There were not as many vendors as in prior years and only two buildings were open. We still took in over $200 between selling raffle tickets and a few small quilts. And I do not want to forget to mention the extra efforts by a few of our members to sell raffle tickets on their own. April was a good month!

Kathleen is working some leads and welcomes your help. If you hear of an event where we might be able to sell raffle tickets, find a contact, make the inquiry, get some details, and contact Kathleen to see if we can move it forward. If we continue to work together, we will continue to make good progress.

Stay healthy and safe,

Bonnie Walshe

Boerne City Wide Garage Sale

Many thanks to our booth volunteers: Bonnie G., Karen R., Linda, and Kathleen. Special thanks to Kathleen for working with me to set-up our quilt sale display Friday evening. It only took two trips to Walmart, a couple of cowboys with a rope and some helpful garage sale experts nearby to get it done! Another seller across from our spot spent the day donating fabric, buttons, patterns, and more to our guild. We referred some quilters to Sew It Fabulous that day and met new member candidates for the guild.

Each of us did a little shopping of our own. Kathleen got a new book and Linda took home a few Beanie Babies for her grand-kids. The big winner that day was Bonnie G. She picked up a TUTTO rolling sewing machine case in great condition for around $25! It was a good day all around!

April Charity/Sale Dropoff

I'm always surprised by our member donations for charity/sale at the library. Several items came in for Quiltfest (e.g. baby quilts, lap quilts, wall hanging, small rug, hot pads and matching mug rug). A twin-size finished quilt was also donated for Sleep in Heavenly Peace. Thanks to all for donating your time and talent to the guild! One member got creative with her donation of baby tutus (in different sizes) and colorful candy sticks to help draw people to our booths. We are anxious to snag a sale venue to display our wares soon!
